DANVILLE, VA., March 19.-(Special.) The Dorothy Henry Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, is a very successful branch of this patriotic asso-Mation, and the organization, as a body and as individuals, is prominent and active in the social life of Danville. Its monthly meetings are notable for their social features. The chapter held its regular meeting on Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Penn. 862 Main street. An attractive programme had been arranged, including lecture on an historical subject, by Rev. T. B. Thames, D. D. This was followed by a pleasant surprise to the hostess, Mrs. Penn, the regent of the chapter. Her associate members in testimony of their appreciation of her official service and her interest in the organization, had prepared a handsome solid-silver loving cup, which was presented in a felicitous address of Dr. Thames. Although completely surprised by the act of her assoclates, Mrs. Penn gracefully and gracious ly acknowledged the compliment. The cup bears this inscription: "Presented to Mrs. James G. Penn, by Dorothy Henry Chapter, D. A. R., Danville, Va., March 14, 1898." On the reverse side is a monogram. Beautiful souvenirs of the occasion, in the form of hand-painted programmes, inscribed with the badge of the Daughters of the American Revolu-tion in blue and gold, the work of Miss Helene Hall, of this city, were presented

FOR THE SUFFERING CUBANS. On Tuesday everyng, a benefit entertainment, in aid of the suffering Cubans, was given under the auspices of the Daughters of the Revolution. It was the pld-time negro cake-walk, in which well-known gentiemen personated and caricatured the old-time country darky. Grotesque costumes, comical capers, and amusing songs and dances afforded ludicrous entertainment. The proceeds were divided between the Cuban relief and the Chapter's Colonial Hall funds.

A campaign of local-option, forecasted in the Dispatch some time ago, is now under way in Danville. The veition for the election has been granted by Judge Aiken, of the Corporation Court, and on the 14th of April—less than a month from now—the qualified voters of three. from now—the qualified voters of three wards of the city will have the opportunity to express at the polls their sentiments on this question. The Fourth Ward, which became a part of the city by annexation about eighteen months by annexation about eighteen months igo, enjoys the privilege of determining for itself whether saloons shall be licensed within its bounds. At present there are no saloons in that ward. The bampaign has been conducted thus far very quietly by both sides. The Dispatch correspondent interviewed leaders on both sides, to-day. Mr. James L. Gravely, who is engineering the fight of the temperance people, expressed the spinion that the election would be concluded without precipitating a contest. rluded without precipitating a contest that might result in ill-feeling between the respective forces. There will be, he said, little or no speech-making, aithough he has corresponded with Joshus Levering, of Baltimore, and George Bain of Kentucky, with a view of having these noted temperance speakers here towards the close of the campaign. The liquor men are on the defensive, and their tactics will be governed largely by the position taken by the local-optionists and the developments of the situation. It be stated, however, that they do

EDUCATIONAL NEWS.

The present heads of the two female tolleges here will cease to direct the af-fairs of their respective schools after the turrent session. The tender of the position of vice-president of the Southwes Virginia Female Institute, at Bristol, has been accepted by Rev. Dr. C. F. James, president of the Roanoke Female College, Professor Robert E. Lee Farmer, princi pel of the Randoiph-Macon Institute, wil cave at the conclusion of this session of the school. Both of the retiring educators have acquitted themselves with much predit, and their departure will be witnessed with regret.
President E. Benjamin Andrews,

Brown University, Providence, R. I., če-livered his lecture on Robert E. Lee in the Academy of Music on Thursday hight. In private conversation, Dr. Andrews expressed himself in favor of re-cognizing the beligerency of the Cuban the distinguished educator, who does not hesitate to hold and express independent views on all public questions, revealed in conversation here that the quality of moral obligation was as binding on a government as on indicate the control of the c ing on a government as on individuals In this connection he took the view that this country would be justified on the high plane of Christian civilization and citizenship in interfering to put an end to the deplorable state of affairs in Cuba. His exposition of "National Ethics' wa exceedingly interesting to the group of gentlemen who surrounded him shortly after the delivery of his address. MRS. SLEDD VERY ILL.

Mrs. Sledd, wife of Rev. Robert Newten Sledd, D. D., paster of Main-Street Methodist Episcopal church, is critically Ill at the paisonage, and no hope is en-tertained for her recovery. Services at the church were abandoned on last Sunthe church were abandoned on last Sunday, and there will be no services tomorrow. Mrs. Siedd was before marriage a Miss Green, of Mecklenburg county,

SUFFOLK, VA., March 19 .-- (Special.)-The death of Rev. George C. Vanderslice, D. D., of Richmond, while not unexpected caused deep regret among our people, he having for four years been pastor of the Main-Street Methodist church, Suffolk In referring to his death, the Dispatch truly said that it would be sad news in the various sections of the State where he had labored in his high calling. Dr Vanderslice was very popular in Suffolk and, though dead, he yet speaketh, for the memory of his good deeds, his godly conversation, and his tender ministration is treasured in many hearts, and while recalling them, the moistened eye and quivering lip attest the depth of affection which our people had for this sainted minister. And this bond of affection was reciprocal, for Dr. Vanderslice requested that his remains should be buried here and in our beautiful Cedar Hill Cemtery his body will to-day be deposited and his last resting-place will in the days come be visited with sacred pleasur by many in whose hearts the memory of his whole life will be treasured as the sayor of a sweet-smelling sacrifice.

Special services have been in progress at the Main-Street Methodist church each night this week. Bishop J. C. Granbery preached on Thursday and Friday nights, his sermons being logical, clear-cut, inas sermons being logical, clear-cut, inspiring, and convincing expositions of the Gospel plan of salvation. It was indeed a spiritual feast to hear this sweet-spirited man of God unfolding his message as a "heraid of the cross," and setting forth the love of Christ, rather than the terrors of the law. The pastor, Rev. W. T. Green, will conduct Services to morrow and on will conduct Services to morrow and on will conduct services to-morrow, and on Monday Rev. B. M. Beckham, of Richmond, will come to Suffolk and assist in the meeting throughout the week.

A BAPTIST REUNION. A reunion of the members of the First Raptist church was held on Tuesday night, and was both pleasant and profitable. After interesting literary and musical exercises, the ladies served refreshments free. In response to a request for sliver offerings for the liquidation of the church debt the ladies resched show
